6. initially thought was a nice guy who helped women get to their preferred locations safely. She did not think behavior was odd until pointed out that he thought so. After considering the circumstances and all she had learned, she agreed with that it was odd for to provide his personal phone number and be so accommodating to all the women, considering he was married with a child.

7. had recently become a father. This seemed to be common knowledge. On November 12th, after picked them up, asked how it was going being a father. did not seem as joyful as she expected. He sighed and pointed out that it was a lot more difficult and stressful than anticipated. made a point to tell them his wife and baby were out of town for the weekend, and he was looking forward to having the house to himself over the weekend and watch football. did not really talk to him after that and Goncalves or Mogen continued conversation until they got dropped off at the Corner Club.

8. did not remember a time that had made her feel uncomfortable or unsafe in the time she had known him.

9. At the Corner Club, remembered the core group of friends hanging out as herself, Mogen, Goncalves, and (her boyfriend). recounted an interaction between and was attracted to and kept trying to get her phone number. did not give it and did not want to interact with him. was staring at her to the point noted it was uncomfortable. tried to convince to give him phone number, but she refused. and her friends essentially worked on keeping and apart since he was making her so uncomfortable. Eventually, was removed from the bar.

9. spoke of what she described as "a weird interaction" among Goncalves, Mogen, and described as a "weird" person who was fairly aggressive and got into a lot of fights. was not a person that she, Goncalves, or Mogen would typically associate with. Goncalves and Mogen left the Corner Club with and it was understanding they were going to John's Alley. almost went with them, but his friends convinced him to stay at the Corner Club. did not see them leave so she was not exactly sure what time that was. thought it was strange that Goncalves and Mogen would both leave with since he was not their "type" of people.

10. could not remember what time she and left but took a video of drinking a beer. The timestamp of that video was approximately 0100 hours on Sunday, November 13. After that, they left the Corner Club on foot.

The video was of Goncalves and Mogen outside a food truck. described them as "acting goofy" while taking the video and enjoying themselves.
